

Short Resume of Prof. Dr. Gottfried Lemperle

An authority on plastic surgery, Prof. Dr. Gottfried Lemperle has contributed greatly to the field medicine. He has written more than 250 scientific publications and co-authored several books, in addition to serving as an editor for a number of textbooks on plastic and aesthetic surgery. Dr. Lemperle has also conducted more than 600 scientific presentations and directed 12 scientific films and videos about new operation methods in plastic surgery.

For more than 20 years, Dr. Lemperle was a professor at the University of Frankfurt in Germany, and he has held the role of Voluntary Clinical Professor at the University of California, San Diego, since 1998.

1997 Prof. Lemperle was honoured with the German Bundesverdienstkreuz 1. Klasse (Federal cross of merit).

Awarded with the Dieffenbach Medal by the German Society of Plastic, Reconstructive, and Aesthetic Surgeons in 2010, Dr. Gottfried Lemperle has made outstanding achievements in plastic surgery.

In Germany he was voted one of the country's top plastic surgery specialists and is the author of several books and scientific journal articles on plastic surgery.

In 1979, Dr. Gottfried Lemperle founded Interplast Germany e.V, a non-profit that performs free plastic surgery for selected patients in developing nations who suffer from conditions that can be corrected through surgery. Since that time, Dr. Lemperle has completed over 30 Interplast missions in several countries throughout Asia and Africa. He is an honorary member of the organization and continues to volunteer his services.